News from the President...

What a great time I had at the past Fall State Campout, held at Covenant Hills Camp in Otisville. I would like to personally thank Chairperson Brenda Duplanty and her chapter, Tails-A-Wagon, for such a fun-filled weekend. Many former members and those who have been away for a time attended, and it was so nice to see many familiar faces that haven't been seen for quite a while at a campout. I received a few hugs and handshakes from many of those friends and I appreciate the many friendships I have made through the years.

I would like to congratulate our new Teen Queen Emily Kurburski, and Teen King Shawn Crookedacre, as well as the Teen Court, Katie Kurburski and Sierra Woolworth.

As the camping season winds down, many of us will soon be winterizing our units, and looking forward to next spring. The 2014 Spring State Campout is still looking for a place and hosts. Perhaps one of our members are considering it, but unsure. Remember, we are all friends, and all is needed is for someone to come forward, and you will have helpers.

Remember to mark your calendars for the delegates' meeting Saturday, November 2, at 10:00 a.m. It will be held at the Burton Police Department, 4090 Manor Drive, Burton, Michigan. All members are welcome to attend the meeting and I encourage all chapters to send a delegate to the meeting and let your voice be heard.

Fall Wrap Up

WOW!!! We are deeply appreciative to all 88 camping families who put their faith and trust in us for a State Fall Campout!!! We truly thank all the people who have taken time out to express your thanks to us. Probably one of the sweetest messages we could hear were members telling us that this was one of the best State Fall Campouts. Thank you so much!! Although we have to say, it takes ALL of us to have a great campout. It takes the workers who put it on, but more importantly, it takes campers to arrive and enjoy the planned activities! Without you, Tails-A-Wagon (TAW) would have put all this time and energy in for nothing. So THANK YOU once more.

We had campers from Ontario, Indiana, Illinois, Georgia, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Ohio and from all over the state of Michigan. We were honored to have special guests camping with us; the International Band Director, the VP of Operations, The 2013-14 International Retiree King and Queen, OPA VP and Ontario DASAT Director, Canadian Regional Directors, Ontario Provincial Director and Past OPA President, Indiana State President, and the Michigan Retiree King and Queen. We were also blessed to have Michigan Retiree Kings and Queens from 2005, 2006, 2009, 2011 and 2012. Numerous past and present teen and youth royalty were also present.

A beautiful, Indian summer, camping weekend officially began on Friday. However, 20 non Tails-A-Wagon campers decided to take in the scenery a day early and arrived on Thursday. (We were only expecting six.) This caught us a little off guard, so we apologize for the wait at the gate at times, but eventually we were able to get everyone in to their campsites. Friday morning started early and lots of parking throughout the day. Everyone received a goody bag filled with lots of goodies.

The weekend officially opened Friday evening with Shari Weber, Dave Mull, Hugh Hicks and Sue Carlsen carrying flags for the flag ceremony. Immediately following was a ceremony in honor of the current Tails-A-Wagon members who were charter members in 1963: Nancy Edgar, Patricia Eaton and Juanita Woolworth. Although Nancy was not able to make it to the campout, words were shared of all their time, energy and commitment they put into TAW and NCHA/FCRV. The ceremony ended with official crowns and sashes for these wonderful Tails-A-Wagon royalty. Ross and Jana DoLittle quickly began their evening of entertainment singing in the hospitality room. It put a smile on Juanita's face to hear the music and look around to see people hanging around the hospitality room and enjoying one another's company just like in years gone by. A perfect match to start the weekend as Jana is a daughter of charter members of TAW.

Saturday was a typical fall campout day. The teens were busy with pageant activities while others had some options to attend as well. The youth enjoyed pirate themed activities. Dotty Korth presented a "Living Lightly" seminar highlighting healthy choices in eating, exercise, and maintaining a positive attitude. Gaylene Anderson shared her card making skills with a Christmas Card workshop in which everyone took home two homemade Christmas cards. Outside activities: Adult games had 26 participants. Jamie and Kaylene Van Wagoner won Ladder Golf and Art Fisette and Levi Mills won Disc Golf. Lucas Woolworth had the most points scored and the most enthusiastic participants were Jane Thornton and Samie-Jo Schaub. The zipline, which "zipped" you across the lake, attracted around 30 participants and 14 enjoyed a demonstration of Pickleball by Jo Ward. At the end of the evening, cake was enjoyed to celebrate Tails-A-Wagon's 50th Anniversary.

In between the activities, members also had the opportunity to visit project sales on Saturday and the vendors both days. McDonald Chevrolet had ten trucks and Leisure Days RV had three campers set up outside for viewing. Inside we had homemade items (Kurburski family), Tastefully Simple (Susan Blake), Thirty-One (Christine Bollenbach), Avon (Luella Arntz), Tupperware (Karen Soyza) and Graphix Screen Printing (Ron & Ida O'Dell).

Fall Wrap Up...

A big congratulations to Emily Kurburski for winning the 2013-14 MSA Teen Queen title. She also was the winner of Miss Talent and Miss Congeniality. Shawn Crookedacre will return as the 2013-14 MSA Teen King due to no young men competing in this year's competition. Emily's court includes Katie Kurburski and Sierra Woolworth. Each of these girls put forth their best effort and it showed. Congratulations again girls!

Professional entertainment was the spotlight of this campout. Friday night, the Doolittles sang songs that allowed us to remember years gone by. The country songs and beat of TJ Thomas and Kentucky Strait kept our feet tapping and heads bopping. A few campers even enjoyed dancing with the numbers. Sunday morning brought praise and worship by the Rob Mills Family. A free will offering collected $417.00 to the Covenant Hills

Camp Scholarship program. This scholarship program brings kids who are not capable of paying for a camp experience to come and enjoy camp. The weekend ended with the Closing Flag Ceremony.

It was a beautiful and perfect weekend from every angle. It was fun to look back at old pictures and remember just how far the camping industry as well as ourselves and our organization have come in fifty years. Many of us have seen its highs and its lows. At this point, only God knows where we will be fifty years from now. We can only hope that we are here or at least our predecessors are here then. Makes us wonder, what legacy are we leaving for people to remember about us fifty years from now?

Yours in Camping,
Tails-A-Wagon, Chapter One

State Director News...

The 2013 State Fall Campout was a huge success thanks to the hard work of Chapter 1, Tails-A-Wagon who also celebrated their 50th chapter anniversary. There were many new activities and this chapter worked tirelessly to make sure we had a good time. It was a great weekend and we enjoyed catching up with our FCRV Family.

Congratulations to our new Teen Queen Emily Kurburski, Teen King Shawn Crookedacre and court Katie Kurburski and Sierra Woolworth; the pageant was lovely and all the contestants did a great job!

We would like to congratulate Clarence and Jo VanWagner who were crowned Michigan's new Retiree King and Queen at the annual retiree rally held in September.

Our scholarship winners this year are Taylor McClelland and Sarah Duplanty for the A Scholarships and Shane Duffy and Brittany Huryn for the B Scholarships...congratulations to all our young adults! Please consider making a donation to the scholarship fund to help our FCRV members further their education.

Thank you to the field staff who attended the field staff meeting at the fall campout. We have a great group of leaders and are excited for the opportunity to work with them.

Our annual field staff Octoberest will be held October 26, 2013 at the Best Western of Birch Run and you do not have to be a field staff to join us...all members are welcome. Please RSVP if you plan to attend or would like more information. We will begin Saturday with a potluck at 3 PM; sloppy joes will be provided...please bring your favorite dish to share. Immediately following will be our get-together and activities. Please bring your own beverages and a snack to share for the evening.

If your chapter officers have changed, please send the information to us. Also remember to forward your 2014 chapter schedules once they are completed. If there are changes or additions to your camping schedules throughout the camping season, please make sure you forward those changes to us.

Our next MSA meeting is November 2...please send a delegate to represent your chapter to have a voice in the business of our association.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued support and dedication to FCRV in Michigan.

We wish you and your family a wonderful holiday season.

John & Linda English,
Michigan State Directors

FCRV Teen King National Contestants Rules

- A. Parents or legal guardians of contestants must be members of FCRV, or the teen must be a member of FCRV.
- B. Age limit is 13 to 19 inclusive. The contestant must be 13 to 19 years old on the day of the contest at the National Campvention.
- C. All national contestants must be a state/provincial representative. Only one contestant per state/province, entered by the state/provincial director.
- D. The contestant must be single and at no time have been married. The contestant's moral character should exemplify the goals of FCRV by exhibiting wholesome and respected qualities associated with family oriented values.
- E. Contestant must complete official registration blank and return to the National Pageant Chairman by the date specified on the blank.
- F. Contestant must be registered with the National Contest Committee no later than 9:00 a.m Monday (Campvention time). Contestant must be present at the time of judging.
- G. Contestant will be judged in a Campvention or FCRV shirt and shorts, that will be purchased prior to Campvention, for the poise and confidence portion, in a business attire, suit and tie at the tea and in a suit and tie at the evening pageant. Contestants will be judged on communication, personality, formal wear, and talent/skills challenge. Talent/skills challenge is not limited to performing arts, it may be displayed in any category as long as it can be performed on stage and is an "individual" talent. Talent/skills challenge is limited up to three minutes duration with one minute allowed for run over. Skills challenge is a pre-determined "competition" to be completed by all king contestants.
Such as: Spelling-tricky everyday words, Golf-nearest to the hole, a short chip shot, Lego-building the tallest structure, Cake-decorating/icing cake.
Five points will be deducted for each 15 seconds, or fraction thereof, over the four minute limit, from the judges composite talent/skills challenge score for any contestant exceeding the limit.
- H. FCRV Teen King will relinquish his title if during the year he becomes married, conducts himself in a manner that is contrary to the goals of FCRV, or for any other reason he cannot complete his reign. The 1st runner-up will accept the title of FCRV Teen King for the remainder of the year. FCRV Teen King will be required to return his crown.
- I. The King and all his attendants (2) will be in the annual FCRV parade.
- J. Once a boy has won the title of FCRV Teen King, he cannot compete in the FCRV Teen King Contest again. However, boys who have not won FCRV Teen King title but have been on the court can compete again. He cannot sit on the court during the contest, if he is a contestant.

With Deepest Sympathy

John "Skip" Malecki passed away suddenly October 8, 2013; lifetime member and second generation family in FCRV; Northern District Field Staff; Tri-City Wagon Train Chapter Member.

There were many surprises during the fall campout including the crowning of Tails-A-Wagon Charter Members Juanita Woolworth and "Aunt" Pat Eaton!

To my FCRV Michigan & Canada families...A big Thank You for all of the door prizes received for the 2013 State Fall Campout. A Special Thank You to my Tails-A-Wagon family that helped me with the door prizes on Saturday night. The biggest Hug & Thanks to Aunt Pat Eaton for putting up with me. Marianne Samardich

CAMPVENTION 2014 Update

The address for the location of Campvention 2014 is Champlain Valley Expo Center, 105 Pearl Street, Essex Junction, Vermont 05453. Campvention 2014 is a six night, five day rally with Sunday, July 6 included in the registration price. July 4th and 5th are available as early days at $25 per night. A church service will be held Sunday morning and all other activities begin Monday, July 7th and conclude Friday, July 11th. The Miss FCRV Pageant will be Wednesday evening.

Thirty-amp electric will be provided, but water lines cannot be laid out until each RV parking row is filled. It is advised to come in with water in your tank. Also come in with empty holding tanks since a dump station on grounds is not available. A pump-out during the week is $25. Wi-fi is available.

Pre-registration by credit card is available and everyone registered by April 1st will have a chance to win free registration.

The Site Decorating Contest theme is "Bring A Cow to Vermont," since Vermont is famous for cheese and ice cream. Categories are most realistic, colorful, creative, and largest.

Photo Book Option Added to the National Historian Program Contest

In addition to the Scrapbook Contest, a Photo Book Option is now included in the National Historian Program.

Jill Serbousek will be your contact person for the photo book contest. You may contact her at jnssebousek@gmail.com with any questions that you may have concerning the photo book contest.

Scholarship News

There were four scholarship awards presented at the MSA State Fall campout at Covenant Hills Campground in Otisville on September 28, 2013. It was wonderful that we had so many applicants this year!

First place A Scholarship went to Taylor McClelland. Taylor is attending Michigan State University (MSU) where she is currently on a pre-medicine track with plans to become a sports medicine physician. She is a member of the MSU club softball team and national honor society. Taylor is a past FCRV International Teen Queen, Michigan Teen Queen, Princess and Teenie Queen as well as had been active within the teen association.

Sarah Duplanty was awarded second place A Scholarship. Sarah is currently working towards a double major; health communications and advertising/public relations at Grand Valley State University. She has recently completed an internship with St. Mary's Health Care and enjoyed working in the human resources department. Sarah has participated in many FCRV activities, including being crowned twice for both Michigan Princess and Teen Queen.

First place B Scholarship was awarded to Shane Duffy. Shane is enrolled at Lansing Community College. He plans to study zoology because of his love of working with animals. He has volunteered at the Potter Park Zoo for the past two summers and has participated in the FCRV band, wildlife photography contest and many chapter events.

Brittany Huryn received the second place B Scholarship award. Brittany is currently enrolled at Macomb Community College, where she is working on her prerequisites for nursing school with the goal of becoming a registered nurse. Also, she hopes to one day write and publish a book. Brittany has been crowned Michigan Teen Queen twice and has been involved in the FCRV teen organization. Her hobbies are music, art and writing.

Although we were able to award four scholarships this year, the amount we could award was very minimal. I hope members and their chapters consider making a donation to the scholarship fund so in the future we may increase the amount we can award to deserving FCRV members.

IMPORTANT REMINDER: Teens living at home planning to attend college or a trade school, upon turning 20 years of age, will need to request a 20-year old honorary membership from the Michigan State Director to apply for a free membership. To be eligible for a National or MSA FCRV scholarship, you must be a member in good standing.

For questions or applications contact: Jane Thornton, Scholarship Director, 2084 Madsen Rd., Saginaw, MI 48601; 989-777-5958; email: raythor2@aol.com. Also scholarship application forms are available on the MSA website. Don't forget to apply for a national scholarship; the contact information is also on the Michigan scholarship application.

Jane Thornton, Scholarship Director

POLICY-TWENTY YEAR OLD HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

1. Any single child of an FCRV member in good standing, may at the age of 20, request of the State/Provincial Director that his/her name be placed on the 20 year old honorary membership list. The name, address, and birth date of the 20 year old will be provided to the national office through the State/Provincial Directors.
2. FCRV will extend the membership of a single child through the age of 24 if that individual is in the military or a student in college or technical school. This extension ceases upon leaving college, release from the military, marriage, or lack of application to the State/Provincial Director each year for a membership extension. At the end of the extension period the member must pay for a renewal at the going rate.

PENGUIN PAGE

Hello campers,

It is an honor to be your new Michigan Teen Queen for the 2013-14 year. I'm looking forward to representing this wonderful state at national and at many other campouts.

I am 15 years old and a sophomore in high school. I am just finishing up my second year as a varsity player on my schools girls golf team. I am involved in 4-H, Grange, and Girl Scouts.

I am excited to represent this organization and cannot wait until the new camping season arrives!

See you around the campfire,

Your 2013-14 Michigan Teen Queen

Emily Kurburski

Hey!!!! It's your 2013-2014 Michigan Teen King. I had a great time at the MSA State Fall campout. I am planning on attending the MSA meeting in November. Also, I cannot wait for Campvention to represent Michigan in the first ever Teen King Pageant next year. I am in the 11th grade. I have been very busy playing Grand Blanc Varsity Football and we will be going far in the playoffs so I will need all your support; I'm doing fairly well in school. I hope to see you all camping.

It is never too early to start thinking about next year. The winter months are a perfect time to start creating your Camping Is posters. Start thinking about ideas and get them down on your poster board. If your group has winter meetings have someone bring poster board, crayons and markers and make this an activity for the kids. This year I will have a special treat for all the entries (it is going to be great). So let's show everyone what Camping Is _____ means to us.

Hey Michigan,

I can't believe that it is fall already and I am back in school. I started the 2nd grade and I have started my 2nd year of competitive cheer and my first year of bowling without bumpers.

I have been busy this summer. I attended the Northern District Mixer, Fall Campout and the Blue Water Mixer. I had fun and really enjoyed each of the campouts.

I played coach pitched ball over the summer and had lots of fun being the only girl on the whole team. I went to Lansing with my competitive cheer team for the state championships.

I also went to Michigan Adventure this summer with my mom, dad and of course my Aunt Patty. I was able to ride my first large rollercoaster, and dad said I screamed all the way through the ride. Mom was at the exit waiting for me and bought the picture of me with both of my hands in the air.

To Brittany, I am so happy that you did so well at national and good luck in all you do. And Shawn you looked very handsome. To Emily, I am excited that you are the teen queen this year. I know we will have lots of fun together.

That's all I have for you right now but when we see each other at the MSA delegates meeting I will be turning 7 at the meeting.

Lots of love,
