News from MSA President

The camping season is soon to be over, with my trailer soon to be winterized and put away until spring.

I was speaking recently to one of our organization's long-time members, and as we spoke, the subject was brought up concerning membership as well as the FCRV Executive Board's membership building ideas, and although I feel the organization is moving in the right direction, I stressed that my personal feelings are that we need to look at ourselves as others on the "outside" may. We all need to remember as members of FCRV and MSA, we are ambassadors for Family Campers and RVers and the Michigan State Association, not National or the executive board; it's our people and chapters that have to sell our great organization. When at a campout with our chapter or other members, display a chapter banner or other FCRV insignia, preferably providing information about our organization; remember to welcome others by creating an inclusive, open atmosphere.

The delegate meeting is November 1, at 10:00 a.m., at the Burton Police Department. I encourage all chapters to send a delegate to be your voice in the decision making for our association; all members are welcome to attend.

It's election time again; 2015. I am looking for an Election Chairperson, to solicit interest in a position on the MSA Executive Board. If you are interested, please contact me before or at the upcoming November delegate's meeting.

FCRV National President's Update – May, 2014

The camping season is well underway here in Missouri for 2014, as I hope it is for you as well. Debbie and I have attended a chapter campout, a District campout, and a State campout as well as the Retiree Rally so far this year. I hope you are all taking advantage of the camping opportunities that our organization has to offer.

The Trustees met two weeks ago to finalize the budget for our organization for the fiscal year 2014 – 2015. Despite diligent efforts, we could not come up with a balanced budget. We did come up with a budget that we feel is workable for the next year. With the loss of ANPAC as a corporate sponsor and the declining membership resulting in loss of dues revenue, the creation of a budget will continue to be a daunting challenge in the years to come. Without a growth in membership and/or an increase in our non-dues revenue stream such as attendance at national rallies and additional commercial memberships, our financial picture will continue to look very bleak. The only other option is to make some very significant cuts to our expenses, the result of which could leave us with a completely different organization than what we have today. I urge you to share this message with the members of your states and provinces. As we have stated throughout the past few years, membership growth is absolutely necessary for us to continue as an organization. The RV industry is continuing to see growth on the manufacturing side with almost yearly increases in units shipped and sold. We have to find ways to get people excited about belonging to our organization. We may have to completely re-think how we recruit new members and what we need to offer our members to keep them active. Please challenge the membership to find new ways to grow our membership. After two months of slight growth, our membership dropped a little at the end of April. The number was 3926 on April 30th.

Continuing on that theme, the last count I heard for registrations at Campvention in Essex Junction, Vermont this year was 184. That is well below the number we need for a monetary break-even. I hope they continue to come in over the next month so that we get to that point. Please continue to advertise Campvention to the members in your states and provinces. The Northeast Region is planning an excellent Campvention for us with several new activities, and it promises to be a fun time for all.

I have formed a Nominating Committee for the Trustee elections this year. Larry Roop has agreed to chair the committee. The members are Sandy Kendall of Nebraska, Pat Parsley of South Carolina, Gilles Dore of Nova Scotia, and Dave Hennie of Ohio. The positions up for election this year are Vice President of Operations, Vice President of Planning and Development, and Comptroller. If any of you are interested in running for one of those positions, or know someone who is, please contact any committee member and make your intentions known. Per current policy, the election will be held next spring with the electees taking office at Campvention in Gillette, Wyoming in July of 2015.

I and the Trustees thank you for all you do for the organization. We are facing a critical time, and with everyone's help we will find ways to improve and make our organization strong.

“Surf’s Up”

2014 Michigan State Association 49th Annual Fall Campout

The 2014 Michigan State Association’s 49th Annual Fall Campout, “Surf’s Up,” held at the Gladwin Fairgrounds, in Gladwin, Michigan, and hosted by the MSA executive board and field staff, is now a memory.

There were 41 families preregistered for the week-end, with the final count of 39 units and an additional 2 families enjoying the weekend’s activities. We also were honored to have the International Retiree King and Queen, Dick & Kathy Buresh, from Texas, and the International Teen King, Fletcher Shaneyfelt, along with his parents, Ed & Angie, from Indiana, joining us.

The weekend activities began on Thursday, as a few of the 17 early-arrivals traveled to Clare, for a visit to the Cops & Doughnuts Bakery, for a sweet treat and mug-shots. Later, over 30 individuals gathered for an evening meal at The Family Diner, in Gladwin.

Friday, the day’s activities began with a visit to a couple of the area’s attractions, Whitetails Live, and The Fruitful Orchard and Cider Mill. Later in the day, many of the campers traveled the short trip just north of town, and enjoyed a mid-afternoon treat of ice cream, at the Corner House Ice Cream Parlor. As evening came, activities included card games of Euchre & Garbage, and several youth and young at heart watching the appropriate named movie for the weekend’s theme, “Surf’s Up.”

Saturday morning, the Gladwin Fire Department provided a D.A.S.A.T. presentation on fire safety, which was well attended. Family games followed the D.A.S.A.T. program, and then youth and adults alike participated in the t-shirt craft making of beach cover-ups.

Saturday’s hot dog lunch was served by the youth, with the proceeds to go towards the youth fund.

Saturday afternoon, the Teen Pageant was held, and the crowning of our new teen royalty. Our 2014-2015 Teen Queen is Lauren Pallas, from Chapter 77, Tip of the Mitt, with 1st runner-up, Katie Kurburski, from Chapter 316, Traverse Bay Travelers, and Sierra Woolworth, from Chapter 1, Tails-A-Wagon, as 2nd runner-up; our 2014-2015 Teen King is Peter Kurburski, from Chapter 316, Traverse Bay Travelers.

After the conclusion of the teen pageant, the youth participated in a craft time of making a flip-flop craft and bracelets.

A camp wide potluck supper was enjoyed by the many, with ham and scalloped potatoes provided by the hosts; thanks to those who prepared the ham and potatoes for all of us.

The evening program began with the recognition of all veterans and those currently serving in our armed services, along with the playing of the National Anthem and the Pledge of Allegiance, then the introduction of all dignitaries in attendance, including the International Retiree King and Queen, Dick & Kathy Buresh, International Teen King, Fletcher Shaneyfelt, International Teen Queen 1st runner-up, Emily Kurburski, and also, International Teen King 1st runner-up, Shawn Crookedacre, who was unable to attend for the weekend.

Following the presentation of Scholarship awards, and for the day’s family games, and the youth Campvention poster winners, the evening’s entertainment was provide by area musician, Dan O’Rourke, who played an hour-long music variety. The evening entertainment was followed by an ice cream social, in lieu of the scheduled C.A.M.P. activity due to the evening rain showers.

A pancake breakfast was provided by the host, on Sunday, with thanks to Foster Kurburski and Jamie VanWagner for their pancake flipping excellence.

The Praise Gang Puppeteers provided the Sunday morning church service, and the weekend’s festivities were concluded with a field staff meeting, before all packed up their camping units and parted for their travels home.

I would like to thank and acknowledge the MSA board, field staff, and all those volunteers that made the Michigan State Association’s 49th Annual Fall Campout a success.

PENGUIN PAGE

Farewell from our 2014 TEEN QUEEN EMILY KURBURSKI

I will try not to cry during this but I can't promise you anything! I can't really put words to describe how thankful I am to have grown up in this organization and then have the opportunity to represent Michigan FCRV as your teen queen. I have not only learned a lot about this association but learned a lot about myself.

I am going to start off by telling you a little about my year and what I have done! As soon as I was crowned a week later I attended the Blue water district campout and would like to thank them for inviting me. A few weeks later I went to the Halloween campout in Hudsonville where we dressed up in costumes and decorated pumpkins. In November were the delegates meeting. On behalf of the teens I put together a basket to be raffled off and we rose over $80 and donated it to the Michigan scholarship fund. When the weather finally cleared up and we were able to begin camping again I began with the state spring campout hosted by the Huryns and I had a blast! In June I attended the northern district campout in Gladwin, Pete and Sammy-Jo Schaub and Ray and Jane Thornton, you definitely know what it means to clown around!! On the fourth of July my family and I began our weeklong journey to Essex Junction, VT where I represented Michigan at the 2014 National FCRV Campvention. After hours of practicing and preparation for the day I had been waiting for all year came. On Wednesday I competed in the Miss FCRV 2014 pageant. It began with the interview, then the tea and the talent portion where I danced the Scottish Trews and was named to the top three talents. After a break in the afternoon the evening portion began where I wrote an essay and spoke about what FCRV and what its motto means to me. After the final question about our biggest accomplishment it was time for the crowning of the new Miss FCRV and National Teen King. Among nine other girls representing their state/providence I was selected as the new Miss FCRV 2014 1st runner-up. During National I hosted the Michigan hospitality where we served cookies and milk and handed out items that were made here in Michigan. The float was a success where Michigan received second place overall! The rest of the summer I went to different campgrounds and spread the word of this great organization.

I am going to start my thank yous with Michigan as a whole, those that attended National to support me, those that invited me to their campouts, and those that have always been there since the beginning for me in my endeavors. Thank you goes to John and Linda English for helping me with just about everything, from putting together Michigan's hospitality to answering every question I could possibly have! Thanks to my chapter Traverse Bay Travelers for supporting me since the day I was born and never giving up on me! To Derek, for escorting me last minute at National. I couldn't have asked for someone better, you showed up even at the last minute when we needed help during practice and for escorting me at the ball! I can honestly say you made me look better! To my 2013 Michigan teen court- Katie and Sierra I couldn't ask for a better support team! To Dave, Heidi, and Courtney Mull, thanks for letting me use your truck for our noise parade the day I won at states and for always being that extra bit of encouragement that I needed! To Ed and Donna Huryn for being my second family; from allowing me to come over to your hotel at five in the morning on pageant day so Brittany could do my hair and makeup and having me as your extra daughter when we toured Vermont! You have always been there for me and I couldn't be more thankful for you two. To Shawn Crookedacre, my 2013-14 Michigan Teen King; you were here for me the first time I won in 2011-2012 and again in 2013-14. Although you aren't here this weekend, you were my extra helping hand, you were always there to listen to me complain about just about anything and always had a positive outlook! Your support and encouragement makes me speechless. To Brittany Huryn, I don't know what I possibly could ever do to thank you for everything you have done for me. You crowned me in 2011, then I crowned you in 2012, and you again crowned me in 2013. You have been my role model throughout this all. I don't know what I could ever do to make up to you everything you have done for me. For making me look beautiful on pageant day, to rereading my essay several times, to listening to me when I needed encouragement, you were there through everything with me and I couldn't ask for a better friend! To my family Mom, Dad, John, Liz, Katie, Peter, and Luke; if it weren't for you I wouldn't be here right now. I would never have been able to accomplish my goal and dreams. The countless hours you put into making me feel confident in myself, to picking out this gorgeous dress, I have no words that could compare to your support and effort you put into making my year one the best one I have ever had!

Even though my year as your 2013-14 Michigan FCRV Teen Queen has come to an end the memories I have made will stick with me forever! I can't possibly thank this great state of Michigan you have given me so much love and support I don't know what else to say besides thank you! I will never forget this year and those that contributed to making it a success for me and this organization.

Welcome to our new

2015 Teen Royalty!

Hello everyone!

My name is Lauren Pallas, and I am the current 2014-2015 Michigan Teen Queen. I would like to thank those of you who assisted me with the pageant, especially my family. Without your love and support, I would not have been able to attend, let alone receive the honor of being our state's Teen Queen. Alongside this achievement and all of its responsibilities, I am also handling the start of my college career. Currently I am a student at the University of Michigan-Flint and have plans to transfer to Ann Arbor next fall. My major is political science, but I am mostly interested in foreign policy. In addition to politics, I am extremely involved in languages and have taken five years of Spanish. Now I have switched cultures and am learning Arabic. For those of you that do not know, Arabic is written from right to left, which is definitely difficult to adapt to. While pursuing my education, I plan to join the NROTC unit in Ann Arbor and become a Foreign Area Officer in the U.S. Navy. After that, I am hoping to go into public office and become a politician. I hope to see some of you at future camp-outs and to hear your opinions on controversial topics. Becoming Teen Queen and joining FCRV again will definitely have a lasting impact on my life and will provide more experiences from which I will learn and grow.

I look forward to meeting all of you in person and I know this will be a great year.

Sincerely,
Lauren Pallas

I'm very proud to be your new Michigan teen king and will be happy to represent our great state in Wyoming in July. Recently I attended the Blue Water district mixer. I had lots of fun playing washer toss and really got into the scavenger hunt around town. Oh, yah the pizza, frosty, chocolate candy, and smoothie were all great prizes from the scavenger hunt. Yum!! Yum!! The evening program was amazing and oh yah don't forget to ask me some Laughy Taffy Jokes. Have a great fall and enjoy those last days of camping. See you around the campfire.

It is time again to start thinking about your posters for Camping Is..... Remember they are due at the spring campout. We had some great entries last year and several national winners. So let's keep this going.

This winter try to plan a fun activity in your chapter for the Youth to attend. In January our chapter is planning to have a winter get together at an indoor waterpark. This is a great way to involve your youth in fun chapter family activity. This is a great way to get everyone together and the adults will enjoy this also. This way you can all wear those great beach cover ups and sandals that you made at the fall surf's Up campout.

With Deepest Sympathy

It is with great sadness that we share the untimely passing of Harold and Linda Martinson, parents of Heidi Mull. The Martinson's were long time members of FCRV from 1975-2005 and spent the better part of each year enjoying retirement in Arizona. The Martinson's, age 71, perished in a fatal car accident due to medical circumstances that impaired Linda's driving. The accident occurred in Albuquerque, NM on their return trip to Michigan to meet their first great granddaughter; the proud grandparents of Dave and Heidi. Harold and Linda would have celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in November. Arrangements are pending but the family is planning a memorial service in August. Please keep the Mull Family in your thoughts and prayers. Condolences can be sent to Dave and Heidi at: 11435 Prairie Ave, Allendale, MI 49401-9466
