News from the MSA President

Thank you for electing me as your MSA President. I will do my best to fulfill the duties of this office. A special thank you to Dave Mull for the fine example he has set for me and I will continue to maintain that standard. Thank you to my board who has agreed to accept their respective offices and I am looking forward to working with you. My door is always open, feel free to contact me anytime.

The attendance at our State Campouts has been declining in recent years and good numbers are needed to help fund our State Association. I ask you to make a special effort to attend these rallies and also the district campouts. The strength and security of MIFCRV is depending on it. The Fall campout in Gladwin (September 15-17) will be hosted by second and third generation members of the FCRV. Let's all really make an effort to attend and show your thanks and appreciation through your presence and participation. The Michigan Association is only funded through the Spring and Fall campouts; FCRV dues go to the national organization making it crucial that we patronize our MIFCRV campouts in order to keep our Michigan camping family going.

Thank you

STATE DIRECTOR'S NEWS

It has been some time since we had a state campout at the Charlotte Fairgrounds and we sure enjoyed our stay. The Eager Beaver Chapter hosted as they celebrated their 50th Chapter Anniversary. The spring campout is always different as hosts can plan some fun and exciting activities! Congratulations Eager Beaver Chapter and thanks for hosting a fun campout.

Please remember spring campouts are planned at the discretion of the hosts so attend with the idea of experiencing new activities. Change is difficult but; please allow our hosts to carry through with their plans to try exciting new things...thank you!

Spring is time for award presentations and we were excited to present the following chapter anniversary awards: Fifty-year awards were presented to Eager Beaver, Sundowners, Wandering Wigwams, and Wolverine Drifters. A forty-five year award was presented to Roll N BuNCHA Chix and a thirty-five year anniversary award to Little House on Wheels Gang. If your chapter was not represented, certificates were given to District Directors.

The State Director Award this year was awarded to Fred and Shirley Schaeding from the Northern District. Unfortunately they were unable to attend the campout. We are most appreciative of their dedication and service to FCRV in Michigan. Congratulations Fred and Shirley!

The field staff fundraiser at the spring campout raised $245!!! Thank you so much for your support to the fund which helps to support many activities of MSA. From that fund we have purchased cloth bags to use for recruitment. The field staff has also decided to give every member in good standing who attends either our state or fall campout in Michigan a bag. Please make sure you get your bag from us to use to help increase our membership. Bags are issued one per member family.

This year's Octoberest will be replaced by a campout (postponed until August 10-12, 2018) to be held at Lake of Dreams Campground in Merrill, MI August 18-20. The campground is hosting a Pirate Theme that weekend and they have planned activities. On Saturday we will gather for a potluck breakfast and supper. Ham will be purchased from the field staff fund for supper. Please bring your favorite potluck dishes to both meals. We will schedule a short field staff discussion so there will be plenty of time to enjoy the weekend. If you have any items to include on the agenda, please let us know. All FCRV Members are welcome to join us.

Campvention 2017 in Lima, Ohio is just around the corner. We hope you have made plans to attend since this year it is just over our southern boarder! We have many Michigan members who are either chairing activities or volunteering and we are most thankful for their support and enthusiasm.

Our National Teen Queen, Emily Kurburski, will be hosting a thank you lunch on Tuesday for all Campvention participants. Please support Emily and enjoy your free lunch.

Our Michigan Teen Queen Katie Kurburski and Teen King Peter Kurburski are anxious to get to Lima and compete in the national pageant.

For the Michigan Get-Together, tentatively we are planning a breakfast potluck early morning on Tuesday. Please check the Michigan Bulletin Board for further updates and up-to-date news!

We hope to see you in Lima!

FCRV Memorial Day Parade in Gladwin, Michigan

There are several FCRV members in Michigan who annually attend the Dick Berg Rodeo held in Gladwin, Michigan. Dick Berg passed away twelve years ago and was instrumental in bringing the rodeo to Gladwin.

This year International King and Queen, Bob and Carolyn Deshone attended. It was decided we would participate in Gladwin's Memorial Day Parade. Bob and Carolyn dressed up in their finest and rode in the convertible owned and driven by Pete Schaub. Also in the parade was second and third generation members of the Nature's Nuts Chapter. Jane Thornton and Samie-Jo Schaub passed out approximately 100 FCRV membership flyers to parade watchers. Many were heard saying "these are the people who camp at the rodeo!" A fun time was had by those of us who watched the parade and we are hopeful our efforts will gain new members in Michigan! We hope you enjoy the few pictures we took during the parade.

MIFCRV TEEN ROYALTY

Hello fellow campers,

As always, I am excited to be writing to you again. State spring was an absolute success thank you to the Eager Beavers. I am glad that I got to meet other teens and youth that recently joined this wonderful organization.

My summer is finally en route and I am preparing for nationals as the days dwindle down. My junior year has come to a close and I am eager for my senior year to take me on a journey. This past year held many celebrations as well as achievements. I am truly honored that I got to share many of them with my camping family.

I am glad to share with you that I now can officially drive a truck while pulling a trailer. I can't wait to see each and every one of you again. See you soon in Lima.

Extremely grateful,
Katie Kurburski
Michigan Teen Queen

Hello fellow campers,

I am so happy to represent the Great State of Michigan for the 2016-2017 year as your Teen King. I am so excited for all of the opportunities that are ahead and hope to have lots of fun.

I am currently a sophomore in high school and have just finished up my wrestling season and about to start my track season where I hope to go to states this year. I am extremely excited for nationals. I hope many of you are able to make it out there for an exciting week. I hope to see you all this year and make you proud.

Sincerely,
Peter Kurburski

FCRV TEEN ROYALTY

Hello Campers,

It has been a very busy winter for me and I am anxiously awaiting the arrival of spring and the camping season! I am finishing up my second work term with Bronson here in Kalamazoo and then will be off to school at the beginning of April for another school term!

I recently competed at the Michigan Collegiate DECA Competition where I brought home second place in the category of Executive Job Interview and third place in the prepared event of Business Research. This means I will be headed to Anaheim, California in April to compete in the International Competition!

Spring will be super busy with campouts, school, and extra-curriculars, but I would love an invite to attend your chapter campouts! I cannot believe that my reigning year is already half-over so I want to continue to make this year one of my most memorable years in FCRV yet!

Thanks again for all of your support and I cannot wait to see what this camping season has in store!

See you soon,
Emily Kurburski
Miss FCRV 2016

Scope Camping Magazine

The Spring 2017 issue is over 100 pages long; with many articles that could be of interest to many of our Michigan campers. One in particular is about the Blue Water Fall Mixer complete with nice pictures. Other articles include: Detroit Institute of Art, Geiger Michigan UP press tour, Birdwatching in Michigan's UP, Wooden Boat Building School, FCRV National Campvention, and many others. Take some time browsing through it and enjoy!

You will find the magazine on the Internet at: <http://www.clickoncamping.ca/>

Chaplain's Corner

When camping we should remember to show who we are and what organization we represent. We need to put out our signs, banners, flags, etc. and go back to wearing our vests to show that we are enjoying what God has provided for us. We also need to show in our lives and activities the pleasure that God gives us.

Praying for your safe travels. See you at Fall!

THANK YOU!

The Eager Beavers would like to thank everyone that attended the Spring Campout which was held at the Eaton County Fairgrounds in Charlotte, MI May18th-21st.

We hosted the Spring campout in honor of our club's 50th anniversary. We had 40 units and five 1st time families in attendance.

On Thursday we toured Spartan Motors in Charlotte and Friday we toured MOO-Ville Creamery in Nashville.

During the daytime on Saturday there were several vendors demonstrating their products which included: Pampered Chef, Blue Streak, also Essential Oils with homemade hand scrubs, Ron and Ida with T-shirts and Engraving (Graphix Screen Printing, Inc.) and Emerald Fox Boutique. The teens hosted a great hotdog lunch. Afternoon crafts were tie-dye T-shirts and bird houses. We had a wonderful potluck with pulled pork and all the yummy side dishes you guys provided.

Our evening entertainment included a wrestling match between Jordan Scofield and Peter Kurburski, an unexpected performance from the Lennon sisters, Emily and Katie Kurburski doing an Irish step dance performance, and our own version of the Newlywed Game. We concluded the evening program with a cake and cookie celebration in honor of Chapter 63 Eager Beavers 50th anniversary.

The teens and double digits went bowling Saturday night. We cannot thank Mark Mayes our most senior member in our group for hosting BINGO and the Saturday evening program. He was entertaining all on his own.

Our weekend ended with a great pancake breakfast and worship with the Praise Gang Puppeteers. We hope you all had as much fun as we did.

Thanks
Jeannie
