

Youth Committee Guidelines

1. Wrist bands, like those used by hospitals have proven to be a good means of providing identification for the youth.
2. A busy youth is not a mischievous youth. Provide things for them to do, such as:
 - A. Arts and crafts.
 - B. Movies--educational and/or entertaining.
 - C. Sports and games.
 - D. Nature hikes, etc.
 - E. Saturday Luncheon.
 - F. Tax your imagination.
3. Run enough hours on Saturday to keep the youth busy.
4. Consider an activity for the youth on Sunday morning during the MSA meeting.
5. Look to outside sources for entertainment assistance.
