News from the MSA President

Greetings from the President

Now that the New Year is upon us, we have a change in the Michigan State Association of FCRV. At the last delegate meeting it was voted to eliminate the November meeting in Burton and hold it at the spring campout from now on. We are hoping to increase attendance at the delegate meetings by making this change.

Since we have not had any proposals for the spring campout it falls on the executive board to host this. It has been decided the spring campout will be at the Church of God Campground in St Louis Michigan. At this time volunteers are needed to assist us in this endeavor. Please contact me if you are interested in helping.

We are still in need of a host for the Fall Campout and would deeply appreciate someone willing to chair this. As our membership continues to decline it is becoming more difficult to find volunteers to handle the necessary tasks. The same people are continuing to do this, but they really need others to assist them. Please consider this and remember we need involvement from our members for the MSA to continue in the future.

President

STATE DIRECTOR'S NEWS

Thank you to the Early Risers Chapter and the Blue Water District for hosting our two state campouts in 2018. We are so thankful for your eagerness to step forward and support our association. There were many great memories from each campout we thoroughly enjoyed and hope you did too.

Please continue to recruit new members through the Introductory Membership Program. This provides a new member 18 months of benefits for the cost of a one-year membership.

It is time for chapters to submit their officers, camping schedules and membership lists. Please get this information to us as soon as you finalize your camping schedule. The chapter president's list will be printed in the April edition of The Michigander.

The 2019 Great Lakes Region Campout will be held July 31-August 4 at the Iroquois County Fairgrounds, Watseka, IL. We will forward additional information once we receive it. Please put this fun weekend on your camping calendar.

Field director annual commitments are now due. Please let us know via email (mifcrv@mifcrv.org) if you will continue in that capacity. We are always looking for additional field staff... let us know if you are interested.

We recommend an annual review of your chapter's constitution and by-laws making sure you are doing what those documents say and in accordance with FCRV. We can provide a review document that lists the FCRV requirements for each of these documents as well as the documents held by national.

Please review Page 2 of The Michigander as our association has openings and we need you. Please consider volunteering for one of the open leadership positions to help our organization. Let us know if we can answer any questions about any of the open positions.

We are now in our eighth year of working for you as state directors in Michigan. We are not ready to step down yet, but it is something we need to plan for in the near future. We would love to share what we do and encourage you to consider this appointment. Training is done by our regional director and we would also be there for you. Please give this position some serious thought and talk to us!

Let us know if there is anything we can help you or your chapter with and thank you for your commitment to FCRV in Michigan.

See you in the Spring!

John & Linda English, Michigan State Directors

Prevent getting locked out

These two photos show how to hide a spare key. Install a combination lockbox on the inside of the propane door.

The reason for the propane door is that it doesn't have any locks, so you cannot accidentally lock yourself out of getting to the lockbox.

Use it to let guests in who arrive while you are not there, call a RV neighbor when you accidentally left a vent, window, etc. open while raining and cannot get back to close it. It is nice to have a key available when there is the possibility of a more catastrophic issue where someone may need to get in.

Lock boxes can be purchased at a hardware, lumber store, online, and many other places.

Hello RVers,

It is time to start getting new members for this year. How? I am not certain, but the more we talk about FCRV the more others will become curious.

Pick up some of the "Come Camp with Us" brochures and leave them at restaurants, feed stores, building supply stores, hardware stores, clothing stores, the hair dresser, etc. If you are having club events, invite friends to join in and make them feel comfortable to be there. Wear some items that advertise camping and FCRV i.e. hats, badges, t-shirts, patches, FCRV club vests, etc.

Word of mouth is the best advertising one can do!

The above is the sole opinion of the editor, Ron O'Dell

MIFCRV TEEN ROYALTY

Dear Camping Friends:

Happy holidays! I hope everyone is healthy and well in these cold winter months. I liked seeing everyone who was at the November Delegates Meeting.

I'm getting excited for the New Year and hoping that we get more snow here. I'm almost done with my semester at school, while preparing for exams this January. The volleyball season is unfortunately over, but I hope to represent Milford again next year. I've been attending piano lessons every week and helping with the bell choir at our church.

I've been busy with Youth Group every weekend, preparing for our trip to Spring Hill in February, and raising money for Key of Hope in South Africa.

I'm also looking forward to the upcoming camping season, and of course, Campvention in Kansas in July.

Thanks again,

Grace Carey

2018-2019 Michigan Teen Queen

Hello,

I am Andrew Huhn 2018-2019 Teen King. I am currently in 8th grade at St John's Middle School in St. John's Michigan.

I enjoy football, track, 4-H and camping. I recently finished my first year of playing football. Our football record for the season was 2 wins 1 tie and 7 losses but we still had fun. Also, I am looking forward to track in the spring time.

In November I am planning on helping with a week-long robotics class for 5th and 6th graders at St. Joseph's in St. John's Michigan,

Thank you to all those who supported me in the process of trying out for Teen King; it was a learning experience.

Andrew Huhn

Michigan Teen King 2018-2019

Miss FCRV 2018

Fellow Campers,

It is my pleasure to be writing to you once again! This camping season flew by with State Spring, Campvention, and State Fall. Thank You so much to the Blue Water district for hosting a wonderful weekend where we crowned our new King and Queen, Congratulations! Thank you, Joyce and John Williams, for planning an amazing weekend with many new adventures.

My camping season took me to so many places from Canada, Missouri, Wisconsin and a few chapter campouts in Michigan. I can't thank everyone enough for all the love and support I have received. You are all so welcoming and made me feel like family when I stayed on your couch or shared potluck with you. Through traveling and spending time with our camping family I gained so many new bonds and I feel extremely blessed.

I am looking forward to this fall season and to be completing my first semester at Ferris State University. I have joined a few new clubs and am studying hard in preparation for exams.

I can't wait to get back to the spring camping season and to be back with each of you! I am planning on attending many more campouts in the spring, so please let me know when your chapter campouts are so I can spend more time with each of you.

Forever grateful,

Katie Kurburski

Miss FCRV

President Position

As President of the Michigan State Association of the FCRV my term is coming to an end. I would like to continue as President for another term. Winter is here! In Michigan we often forget to get outdoors and enjoy God's Grace. It is important to get out and get some sunshine. It may help keep you healthy and avoid depression.

Isaiah 55:10-12(KJV)

<sup>10</sup>For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

<sup>11</sup>So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

2018 State Fall Photos

These photos are from Dave Rowells; part of the email is posted below as an explanation.

My name is Dave Rowells and my family (parents: Paul & Joan Rowells) grew up here in Michigan in the Detroit metro area.

While visiting my mother last Fall, I asked permission to bring home old family photos and slides from my childhood so I could scan and preserve them on my computer. Some of the best memories I have was camping up north just outside Mio and some of the nearby state parks.

While scanning I came across a couple photos that I thought would be appreciated by one of the local chapters. Chapter 58 - Wee Otters. One of them includes a couple of ladies I thought that maybe the family members of them would like something from the past. I know I did and the older I get the more valuable those pictures and memories become.
