STATE DIRECTOR NEWS

Happy New Year! Isn't there some satisfaction in a fresh start? I had put camping in the back of my mind for the holidays because there's always so much going on, but now we can turn our attention to my favorite time of the year, spring! Whether you believe it or not, we're merely four months away from our first campouts.

Are you thinking about where you might meet up with all of your camping friends in 2024? I hope that you'll consider joining us at a district or state campout. I'm looking forward to returning to a couple of my favorite spots for State Campouts, Gladwin and St Louis. And it's been many years since I could make it to a Southeast District, but with my new work schedule, I'm hoping to attend. Of course, we've already registered for Campvention in New York! Remember registering early for any campout is helpful to the committee for planning especially since so many campouts provide food at one point or another.

I'm terribly excited that I have invited several families to come camping with us and some have decided to give FCRV a try. Our friends Kevin and Renee joined us as we visited the Indiana Fall Invitational and my cousins have already sent in their registration for Campvention! Both families are excited to get back to camping. I was surprised at what a joyous response I had from these families. And it made me think about inviting more people. So as a New Year's resolution, will you join me in asking at least one friend to "Come camp with us"?

Can't wait to see you soon around the campfire!

Chaplain's Corner

Winter is upon us with the New Year is just beginning. Time to leave old problems behind and start fresh. Also, it is a great time to take care of personal things. How about one's health? Is losing weight a concern? Maybe there is a medical problem that has been neglected? Whatever the need it is a great time to address the issue and start fresh with the new year.

Some financial problems may need attention. One thing many do not do, is to change the passwords for online logins. Passwords should be changed at least once a year and now is an opportune time to do it.

Praying everyone has a wonderful winter and am looking forward to seeing you all at S.E. District, Davisburg, MI.

Proverbs 3:5-6(KJV)

⁵Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. ⁶In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

It is with great sadness that we have learned Fran Callahan passed on December 17th. Please keep the Callahan Family in your thoughts and prayers. Cards may be sent to Fran's son, Tim who was very active in the teen association and as a young adult:

Disaster and Safety Awareness Training

Happy New Year Everyone, I hope everybody had a blessed, happy and safe Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year Holiday season and celebration.

I've been thinking about what to write for this Michigander edition. So while scrolling through or TV satellite channel guide (250 channels of nothing to watch) I came across an old Perry Mason show, The Case of the Meddling Medium, which kind of got me thinking (yes, I know scary, me thinking)

The Case of What Do We Do in Case of an Emergency ? Here's some examples of scenarios to think about.

In the Case of you traveling somewhere alone or with someone and your vehicle breaks down, a traffic accident occurs, or during wintertime driving weather conditions change for the the worse and you end up in the ditch or stranded along the roadway. What do you do? What do you not do? Who do you contact? etc.

In The Case of you working in the kitchen, garage, shop, yard, woods, and you cut yourself or severely injure yourself somehow using knives, power tools, and equip, yard tools, chainsaw, or fall from a ladder. Do you know what to do? Do you know where you're at? Can you give directions to your location? Can you treat yourself until help arrives? etc.

In The Case of walking/hiking, biking, boating/tubing, trail riding and something happens. Again do you know what to do? Who to call? Did you tell anyone where you were going or what you were going to do? Do you know your location? etc.

In The Case of being at home, shopping, at a restaurant, visiting someone, on vacation etc. and a weather event, non-emergency or emergency incident/ or disaster occurs, do you shelter in place or leave? What if an evacuation order is given? What do you do?, Who do contact to let them know what you're doing and where you're going? What route are you taking? What don't you do? What can you take with you? etc.

In The Case of an Emergency and What Do I Do, the need to call for assistance or call 911 will arise. Not to keep repeating some of these questions and statements but do you know who to call, when to call, do you know your location or address? What if there's no cell service or your cell phone isn't working. Can you call, text or email for help? What if there's also a problem with you're land line if you have one? Modern technology is great until it doesn't work, then some people are lost on what to do. Do you have a communication back up plan to summon help if needed? There are more questions you you should be asking yourself and thinking about. Below are some examples of alternate communication for emergency and non-emergency uses. Some are fairly inexpensive and others are more costly. Some of you may already have a back up plan.

Alternate communication systems are not limited to this list.

Various Cell phone Apps (if cell phone service is available)
Satellite Messenger
Walkie Talkies
GMRS 2-Way Radios
MURS (multi use radio service) 2-Way Radios

Satellite Cell Phones
Personal Locator Beacon
HAM Radio
CB Radios

Also In Case Of Emergency What Do I Do to help yourself, your family, friends, and even strangers here's some suggestions.

Take a First Aid course, Learn CPR/AED, Buy and learn to use GPS or Compass, Get a First Aid Kit or make your own for home, your vehicle, shop, RV. etc. Create a pre-plan, check list, go bag for traveling, camping etc. Also sometimes let your spouse, family, or friends know where you're going, doing, travel route, length of time involved. Just in case of.

If anyone would like help in creating some type of emergency plan, first aid kits, go-bags, checklists, backup communication system, please contact me, I'd be more than happy to help you out in any way I can. There are numerous resources available.

Happy New Year

Stay Safe Everyone

Respectfully,

Tom Lewis

Cranberry Bliss Bars

Source: RecipeGirl.com

BLONDIE LAYER:

- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup (1½ sticks) salted butter, cubed
- 1½ cups packed light brown sugar
- 2 large eggs
- $\frac{3}{4}$ teaspoon vanilla extract
- 2¼ cups all purpose flour
- 1½ teaspoons baking powder
- $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt
- $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon ground cinnamon
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup dried cranberries
- 6 ounces white baking chocolate, coarsely chopped

FROSTING:

- 8 ounces cream cheese, at room temperature
- 1 cup powdered sugar, sifted
- 6 ounces white baking chocolate, melted
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup dried cranberries, chopped

Instructions

1. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Spray a 13x9-inch baking dish with nonstick spray.

PREPARE THE BLONDIE LAYER:

1. In a medium bowl, melt the butter for one minute in the microwave; stir in the brown sugar. Scrape the
